

Section 1.101 Organization

A. Members

The Planning Board shall consist of five members appointed by the Executive, subject to the confirmation by the Council, and shall serve overlapping terms of five years from the first day of May of the year of their appointments, or until their successors are appointed. Members of the board shall receive no compensation for their services except reasonable and necessary expenses as may be provided in the budget.

B. Chairperson; Vice Chairperson

The Board shall annually select a Chairperson and Vice-Chairperson on the first regularly scheduled meeting in September. The Chairperson shall have the duty and responsibility for the overall coordination of the Board's activities. In addition, the Chairperson shall preside at public hearings and public meetings and shall rule on preliminary matters of a procedural nature. The Vice-Chairperson shall assume the Chairperson's duties if the Chairperson is absent or incapacitated.

C. Quorum

A majority of the Planning Board, at least three members, constitutes a quorum. A quorum shall be present before the Board can hold a meeting or hearing.

D. Voting

A decision by the Board requires the concurrence of a majority of the Board members. In a decision-making hearing attended by less than the full Board, if a majority vote is not attained, the absent member(s) shall review the record in its entirety and cast the deciding vote(s). The same members of the Board who were present at the hearing shall make the decision on the case, provided that any member who was absent during any portion of the hearing or who was appointed after the hearing commenced shall be considered present for voting purposes and may vote if the member confirms verbally prior to voting and certifies in writing in the decision and order that the member reviewed all of the evidence submitted and listened to a recording of the portion of the hearing for which the member was not present.

E. Executive Secretary

The Director of the Department of Planning and Zoning or the Director's designee shall serve as the Executive Secretary to the Board and shall attend all public meetings and public hearings of the Board.

F. Legal Advisor

The County Solicitor shall be the legal advisor and review and sign as legally sufficient Decisions and Orders for the Board and, at the request of the Chairperson, shall attend the Board at its public hearings, public meetings and work sessions. The County Solicitor may delegate these duties from time to time to an Assistant County Solicitor.

G. Secretary

The Executive Secretary shall appoint a secretary who shall record proceedings, draft and maintain the Minutes of Board meetings, and perform other administrative support duties as assigned by the Board.

Section 1.102 General Format of Meetings

A. Place and Time of Meeting

1. The Planning Board shall hold sessions as scheduled by the Executive Secretary after consultation with the Chairperson, including preliminary matters when the Chairperson deems them necessary.
2. Planning Board sessions shall be held in the George Howard Building, Ellicott City, Maryland or as otherwise elsewhere, including another physical location or by teleconference or similar means as scheduled by the chairperson in consultation with the executive secretary.
3. Planning Board sessions shall be held every other week or as otherwise designated by the chairperson in consultation with the executive secretary.

B. Record of Proceedings

The Planning Board shall maintain an official record of its proceedings in each case. This record shall include all testimony and exhibits and a recording of the proceedings.

1. For meeting that are recorded and/or live-streamed, the recording will serve as the official minutes of the meeting.
2. Transcription of Proceedings shall be made available if requested on appeal or if requested by an interested party who appeared at the hearing. The transcribed testimony shall be obtained from the Clerk of the Board upon payment in advance for the cost of transcribing the record. The transcriber shall certify the accuracy of any transcript. The County Council shall prescribe by resolution the specifications for transcript preparation.

C. Open Hearings

All matters before the Planning Board shall be governed by the applicable provisions of the Maryland Open Meetings Act.

To preserve public confidence in the fairness of Planning Board deliberations and decisions, the Planning Board should ensure that the public and interested Persons have the opportunity to know, and respond to, all information that the Planning Board considers in making its decisions.

Ex Parte Communications: Evidence shall be presented to the Planning Board in hearings open to the public. Neither the Board nor its individual members shall hear any party of interest or receive any evidence, argument, or other matter in other than the open session with the limited exception of those matters for which the Maryland Open Meetings Act permits a closed session, including obtaining legal advice from counsel. Any request for information concerning a pending or proposed petition should be directed to the Executive Secretary or designee.

The Planning Board should also ensure that all members have the same opportunity to know and consider any relevant evidence provided to any other Planning Board member.

When considering any matter decided under these Rules, the Planning Board deals with Persons who are directly affected by its decision (such as the Applicant and neighbors of a proposed subdivision site). Each of these interested Persons and the Public needs the assurance that other interested Persons will not have an unfair advantage in presenting their version of the relevant facts or concerns to the Board. To that end, Board members must avoid communicating with Applicants or any other Persons about a pending Application except at Board meetings when the Application is considered.

D. Submitting Oral and Written Testimony and Evidentiary Materials

1. Providing Oral Testimony: Individuals attending a session shall sign his or her name to the roster either for the petitioner, in favor of the petition, or opposed to the petition before the Board if they wish to testify. For a Board hearing conducted by teleconference or similar means, individuals shall sign up by electronically messaging the Board secretary by any method designated by the Board, at least one business day prior to the scheduled start of the hearing
 - a. For public meetings according to Sections 1.106, 1.107, 1.108, 1.109, The Board may limit the time allotted for oral testimony. The Board may leave the record open to receive written testimony. Each Person offering oral testimony should summarize major points, which can be more fully discussed in written testimony and refrain from repetitious oral testimony. Those presenting testimony are advised to observe general rules of decorum and address only the issues before the Board.
2. Continued Hearings
 - a. Public hearings: For public hearings according to Section 1.105, if a hearing is continued to a later date, only individuals who have signed up to testify prior to the end of the petitioner's case will be permitted to testify at any subsequent hearing on the same case, unless called to testify by the petitioner on rebuttal or the opposition on surrebuttal. Once in work session the board may elect to reopen the record to admit new evidence.
 - b. Public meetings: For public meetings according to Sections 1.106, 1.107, 1.108, 1.109, if the meeting session is continued, additional individuals can sign up, at least one day prior to the scheduled start of the next meeting. However, if the meeting session has closed and the case is continued to convene a work session at a later date, no additional testimony will be taken. Once the Board begins a work session, members of the public will not be able to sign up to testify but may be called upon at the Board's discretion to respond to questions.

3. Submitting written materials: Any Person who wishes to bring to the Board's attention complex data, reports, or arguments should submit the material in writing a least one week before the hearing to give the Board sufficient time to review the materials. Brief written testimony, in support or opposition to a case, can be submitted one business day prior to the scheduled start of the hearing.
 - a. Submitting exhibits for quasi judicial hearings: Any exhibit, model, or demonstrative evidence presented by Planning Staff, the Applicant, or any other Person as an element of its oral or written testimony before the Board, must be submitted in a digital format three weeks in advance to Planning Staff. All materials proposed to be admitted into evidence will be made available to all parties registered for the proceeding and each party must indicate if they will agree to the admissibility of each item into the record no later than two weeks prior to the hearing date. All proposed exhibits registered as of this deadline, must be assigned an exhibit number, marked and identified for the record by the Planning Staff. Once evidence is identified for the record, it will be shared on the Planning Board website. The Chair of the Planning Board will determine which proposed exhibits will be admissible into the record.

At the discretion of the Chair, parties may present additional evidence at the hearing. The person must provide a brief description of it and the Chair must rule on the admissibility of each item into the record. Evidence ruled admissible by the Chair must be assigned an exhibit number, marked and identified for the record by the Planning Staff.

All exhibits become part of the administrative record. The exhibit, or an accurate representation of it, must be given to the Planning Staff when it is admitted into the record by the Chair. Each exhibit entered into the record becomes the property of the County and must not be returned. Any Person who expects to present an exhibit or other demonstrative evidence should advise Planning Staff sufficiently before the hearing so that staff can make appropriate arrangements for its presentation.

- b. Submitting written testimony- For public meetings according to Sections 1.106, 1.107, 1.108, 1.109, brief written statements, in support or opposition to a case, can be submitted one business day one business day prior to the scheduled start of the hearing but may be submitted earlier. Written testimony should be submitted according to the method prescribed by the Chair and information on how to submit written testimony should be available on the Planning Board website.

Section 1.103 General Provisions.

A. Form and Content of Petitions.

The Planning Board may be petitioned by any party duly authorized pursuant to the Howard County Code, Howard County Zoning Regulations, or other provision of law. The Chairperson shall prescribe the form and content of petitions after consultation with the Executive Secretary.

B. Amendments to the Petition.

If any amendments to the petition are made before or during a hearing, the Board, either before or during the hearing, may continue the hearing, or may suspend or postpone the hearing and remand the amended petition to the Department of Planning and Zoning for further recommendations.

C. Payment of Fees.

At the time the petition is filed with the clerk of the board, the Petitioner shall pay the applicable fees in accordance with the current schedule of fees adopted by resolution of the County Council. Checks shall be made payable to the Director of Finance of Howard County.

D. Appearances before the Planning Board.

1. The following parties may appear before the Board.
 - a. An individual may appear on his or her own behalf
 - b. A member of a partnership may represent the partnership
 - c. A duly authorized representative of a corporation, trust, nonprofit organization or association may represent the corporation, trust, or association.
 - d. A duly authorized representative or employee of a political subdivision, body, or department may represent the political subdivision, body, or department.
 - e. Representatives of Associations – an individual testifying at a hearing on behalf of any civic, community or citizens association shall show that he or she is authorized to speak for and represent the views of that association. The authorization may consist of a duly adopted resolution of the association signed by the president or attested by the secretary. The individual testifying shall state the number of members in the association and its geographic boundaries.

2. Parties

An individual or any other legal entity may become a party to the proceedings before the Board, no later than one business day prior to the scheduled start of a Board hearing, and by:

- a. Providing the name, address and signature of the party and/or of the legal entity's duly authorized representative on a signup sheet, which includes but is not limited to an electronic sign-up sheet provided by the Board.
- b. Testifying before the Board and providing it with the name and address of the party and/or legal entity; or
- c. In Quasi-Judicial Public Hearings, sending a letter to the Board, received no later than one business day prior to the scheduled start of the Board hearing, indicating that the individual and/or legal entity is an interested party to the matter before the Board and providing the party's name, address and signature. Such letters may not be considered for any substantive content and will be received into evidence only for identification of parties to the case. In addition, petitions for or against a zoning matter shall not be used for purposes of conferring party status on those individuals signing the petition under this provision.

3. Spokesperson

When a group of individuals appears in opposition to or in support of a petition, the Board may request the group to elect a spokesperson or the group may select a spokesperson in advance of the hearing who shall have the power to cross-examine witnesses, call witnesses, introduce evidence on behalf of the group, object to the introduction of evidence, make opening and closing statements, and act in a presentative capacity solely on behalf of those individuals electing the spokesperson. Those individuals not electing to be representative by a spokesperson may act on their own behalf.

At least one business day prior to the scheduled start of the Board hearing, the spokesperson shall notify the Board that he or she will be a party to the proceeding and shall specify the name of the group that he or she is representing and shall submit documentation that he or she is authorized to represent that group.

4. Representation by Attorney at Law

Any party in a proceeding may be represented by an attorney at law admitted to practice law before the Court of Appeals of Maryland. At least one business day prior to the scheduled start of the Board hearing the attorney shall notify the Board of the names and addresses of individuals he or she will be representing and his or her own name, address and telephone number.

E. Motions, Rulings, Correspondence; filing and service requirements.

1. Motions

A party may request the Board to address a preliminary matter, including a motion to dismiss or a request for postponement prior to the initial hearing by filing a request as a motion to the Board, with copies for each board member, and certifying that a copy was provided to all persons known to have an interest in the case. All motions must be filed at least seven days in advance of the scheduled start of the hearing, absent the Board finding good cause. Absent good cause shown, the Board shall rule on the motion at any time, as soon as practicable, but before the case is closed.

2. Rulings

A party or the Department of Planning and Zoning may request the Board to review any prior decision of the Board for which any change in the plans has occurred after the Decision and Order has been issued. The Board can review the matter at a work session, the purpose of which review shall be limited to determining whether the change results in a plan that materially differs from the findings that were necessary to the approval granted by the Decision and Order or causes the plan to exceed the scope of approval granted by the Decision and Order. If it is determined that the plan is materially different or exceeds the scope of the prior approval, then the revised plan will be scheduled for a separate proceeding in accordance with the rules that apply to that case.

3. Correspondence

Other types of written correspondence, not related to a case and that does not qualify as written testimony or evidence according to Section 1.102.D, can be submitted to the Board and will be noted at the next meeting of the Board.

4. Postponements

A request for a postponement shall not be granted absent compelling circumstances. However, if a technical staff report is not provided prior to a scheduled public hearing or meeting as required by law, the Planning Board shall postpone the hearing or meeting to another date to allow compliance with the required deadline. Requires postponement if staff report is not timely, Staff reports are due two weeks prior to all Planning Board public hearings and meetings except only one week in advance of public meetings in which the Board makes an administrative decision.

F. Types of Meetings

The Board welcomes testimony from the public and interested Persons at its sessions and the public is invited to attend and participate in all public matters before the Planning Board.

The individuals attending shall maintain order and refrain from disturbing the orderly process of the hearing. The Chair may clear the hearing room of disruptive individuals or recess the hearing. For teleconference and similar proceedings, the Chair, or at the Chair's direction, the Board staff, may mute any persons who are not designated to present at that time or any person whom the Chair determines to be disruptive so long as the person continues to be disruptive to the Board proceeding.

The Planning Board must seek to conduct public sessions in a fair and efficient manner that permits a thorough exploration of the issues of fact and law to be decided. The Board's decision on each Application must be based on applicable legal standards and the evidence and argument in the record of the hearing, whether in written, oral, or exhibit form. The Board may also rely on the knowledge, experience, and observations of its members, and facts in common knowledge.

The Planning Board conducts sessions in different formats depending on the matter before the board- public meetings, public hearings and work sessions. The format of the sessions is governed by the function of the Planning Board as described in Section 1.104 of this document.

1. Public Meetings:

The public is invited to attend Planning Board meetings. The individuals attending shall maintain order and refrain from disturbing the orderly process of the meetings. The Chair may clear the hearing room of disruptive individuals, or recess the meeting, or mute a person or persons as necessary to maintain order.

Information shall be presented to the Planning Board in meetings open to the public.

Those in favor of and in opposition to the matter, shall be given a reasonable opportunity to present information to the Board for its consideration.

2. Public Hearings:

As required by law, the Board shall conduct a public hearing in accordance with the procedures set forth in the following subsections prior to making a quasi-judicial decision on matters defined in Section 1.104 . The format of hearings are quasi-judicial in character and differ from the public meeting format by including provisions for a) witnesses b) witness cross-examination, and c) opposition to provide presentation and witnesses.

The public is invited to attend Planning Board hearings. The individuals attending shall maintain order and refrain from disturbing the orderly process of the hearing. Applause or similar emotional reaction displayed at the hearing may be misconstrued by the reviewing Board of Appeals or court as having influenced the Board in its decision. The Chairperson may clear the hearing room of disruptive individuals, or recess the hearing. For teleconference and similar proceedings, the Chairperson, or at the Chairperson's direction, the Board staff, may mute some or all persons who are not designated to present at that time or any person whom the Chairperson determines to be disruptive so long as the person continues to be disruptive to the Board proceeding.

The Board's decision on each Application must be based on applicable legal standards and the evidence and argument in the record of the hearing, whether in written, oral, or exhibit form.

a. Rules of Evidence

Any evidence which would be admissible under the rules of evidence applicable in judicial proceedings in the State of Maryland shall be admissible in hearings before the Planning Board. The Board is not bound by the technical rules of evidence, including the qualification of expert witnesses, but will apply its rules so that probative evidence may be conveniently brought forth. The Board shall exclude immaterial evidence and may exclude unduly repetitious testimony and other evidence and may limit the number of witnesses and duration of their testimony when the testimony is cumulative in nature.

b. Witnesses:

(1) Questioning of any witness shall:

- i. Be brief, pertain only to statements made by the witness, and shall not include statements or speeches.
- ii. Be interrogatory in nature and shall not be argumentative, nor make allusions about the personality or motives of the witness.
- iii. At the discretion of the chairperson, questions or cross/re-cross examination of a witness shall be put in a written form and asked by the Board's legal counsel.
- iv. Any individual wishing to question the petitioner's witness may do so with approval from the Chair and the Chair may grant this leave after recognizing the individual and after that the individual has:
 1. Given his/her name and address
 2. If appropriate, the location of their home in reference to the property which is the subject of the hearing.

3. Work sessions

The Planning Board may meet in work session to discuss evidence it received in public hearings.

- a. Open Work sessions. The public is invited to attend the work sessions held by the Board on a petition in accordance with the Maryland Open Meetings Act, however, no additional evidence or testimony will be accepted.
- b. Closed Work sessions. The Planning Board may meet in closed session as permitted by the Maryland Open Meetings Act.

G. Time Limits

The Petitioner, and those interested in being heard on matter before the board, shall be given a reasonable opportunity to present information to the Board for its consideration.

If any Person wishes to bring to the Board's attention complex data, reports, or arguments, that Person should submit the material in writing before the hearing. The Board may limit the time allotted for oral testimony. The Board may leave the record open to receive written testimony. Each Person offering oral testimony should summarize major points that can be more fully discussed in written testimony and refrain from repetitious oral testimony. Those presenting testimony are advised to observe general rules of decorum and address only the issues before the Board.

1. Time Limit – Presenters

The Board may impose a reasonable time limit for speaking on those who wish to make an oral presentation to the Board.

2. Time Limit – Hearing

The Board may impose a reasonable time limit on the duration of the hearing.

3. Written Testimony

The Board, at its discretion, may accept written testimony by mail, e-mail, or facsimile one day in advance of the meeting.
